ABOUT THIS BROCHURE

Thank you for choosing to study at the University of Cape Coast (UCC); the University of Competitive Choice in the sub-region.

Kindly read this brochure very carefully to enable you to make the right decision(s) about your choice of study and further career. The University looks forward to receiving you as its student and to guide you to success in an enabling academic and social ambience.

This brochure is intended to serve as a reference document especially for you, a prospective graduate student of the University of Cape Coast.

General information about the University of Cape Coast and pertinent issues on graduate studies that have been highlighted include the Colleges/Faculties/Schools/Institutes/Departments and the specific graduate programmes they offer.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication. However, the School of Graduate Studies reserves the right to make changes any time as deemed necessary.

We wish you well in your preparation to be part of the success of the University of Cape Coast.

1.0 BRIEF PROFILE OF UNIVERSITY OF CAPE COAST (UCC)

1.1 Corporate Information

The University of Cape Coast was established in October, 1962 as a University College. This was as a result of a recommendation by an international commission appointed by the Government of Ghana in December, 1960 to advise on the future of university education in the country and the possibility of establishing Ghana's third university at Cape Coast. The University College of Cape Coast was established and formally inaugurated on December 15, 1962 and placed in special relationship with the University of Ghana.

Earlier in 1964, the government had assigned specific fields of operation to each of the country's three public universities, and the College was renamed: The University College of Science Education, in line with the emphasis placed on science education. It was subsequently entrusted with the task of training graduate teachers in Arts and Sciences; especially the latter, for the secondary schools, teacher training colleges (colleges of education) and technical institutions in Ghana.

The University building structures emanated from a Teacher Training College which was located at a place currently called the Southern Section of UCC. It expanded rapidly in size, and by 1965 further developments had begun for a permanent campus site, about 1.6 kilometers to the north of the original pioneer location. In 1966, following the change of government, the College reverted to its original name; the University College of Cape Coast.

In 1970, the Council of the University College recommended that Government upgrades the University College to full university status with authority to award its own degrees. As a result of this and an associated recommendation by a University Visiting Committee; appointed by the Government in the preceding year legislation, the University of Cape Coast Act, 1971 (Act 390) was promulgated for granting full university status to the College with effect from 1st October 1971. This was later re-enforced with the University of Cape Coast Law, 1992 (PNDC Law 278).

The University is currently organised into five (5) Colleges namely: College of Agriculture and Natural Sciences (CANS), College of Education Studies (CES), College of Health and Allied Sciences (CoHAS), College of Humanities and Legal Studies (CHLS) and College of Distance Education (CoDE), with each College headed by a Provost. The Vice-Chancellor is the academic and administrative head, as well as the chief disciplinary officer of the University. The Pro Vice-Chancellor assists the Vice-Chancellor. The Registrar is the chief administrative officer of the Vice-Chancellor.

1.2 Core Values

Excellence: UCC seeks to pursue excellence through the creation of standards in teaching, intellectual inquiry, engagement and professional practice.

Empowerment: UCC offers opportunities to its employees and products in a manner that empowers them to be agents of change.

Equal Opportunities: UCC strives to provide equal opportunities and access to quality education and services to all categories of persons regardless of colour, creed, ethnicity, gender, social status and physical ability.

Ethical Behaviour: UCC upholds acts of honesty and responsible behaviour and holds its members accountable for their actions and conduct in a way that promotes integrity of the person and the image of the University.

1.3 Vision Statement

The vision of the University of Cape Coast is:

“To be a University with a worldwide acclaim that is strongly positioned for innovative teaching, research, outreach and professional development.”

This statement of where the University sees itself in the future sets the tone for every strategic decision or choice that it has made. It sets the ambition of the organisation and serves as the lodestar that every College, Faculty, School, Department, functional division and individual must aspire to. In combination with its mission statement, the University of Cape Coast has articulated a view of a realistic, credible and attractive future for itself; a target that inspires all stakeholders to maximise effort in bridging the gap between their current reality and their desired future.

1.4 Mission Statement

The mission statement of the University of Cape Coast is as follows:

“The University of Cape Coast is an equal opportunity university uniquely placed to provide quality education through the provision of comprehensive, liberal and professional programmes that challenge learners to be creative, innovative and responsible citizens.”

1.5 The School of Graduate Studies (SGS)

The School of Graduate Studies (SGS) began as a Committee on Higher Degrees with a mandate to advise Senate on the University’s graduate scholarship policy and recommend the award of scholarships for approval. In 1992, the Committee on Higher Degrees was elevated to the Board of Graduate Studies and to the School of Graduate Studies and Research on 1st August, 2008 to meet the challenges of graduate studies and research. On 1st August, 2014, it was renamed the School of Graduate Studies. The Board of School of Graduate Studies (SGS) is a sub-committee of the Academic Board and is charged with the responsibility of administering graduate education in the University.

The functions of the Board are four-fold:

1. Draft regulations for all higher degrees with a view to ensuring that acceptable academic standards are maintained.
2. Receive reports and consider recommendations pertaining to higher degrees and graduate diplomas from Departmental and Faculty Committee of Graduate Studies.
3. Determine results of higher degrees or graduate diplomas.
4. Make recommendations to the Academic Board for the award of higher degrees and graduate diplomas.

The mission of the School is to create a facilitating environment for teaching, learning and training of graduate students in the fields of the sciences and humanities, equipped with initiative and leadership in key sectors of international endeavour. In conformity with the mission and objectives as outlined in the university's strategic plan, the School of Graduate Studies has the following specific objectives:

1. To ensure the relevance of graduate programmes for the promotion of socio-economic, scientific and technological development of Ghana and Africa.
2. To deepen graduate training to promote teaching, research and creativity.
3. To make graduate training and research continually responsive to the changing climate of the world of work.
4. To mobilize appropriate human and material resources from within and outside the university to ensure maximum utilization of available potentials.

Currently, the University of Cape Coast has 3746 graduate students pursuing 241 graduate programmes. The breakdown is 294 Ph.Ds, 679 M.Phil/M.Com/MN and 4,245 pursuing MA/M.Ed/M.Sc/MBA and post graduate diploma/certificate programmes. For the 2019/2020 academic year, the School graduated 2461 students including 79 Ph.Ds.
