

The University of Rhode Island, USA,
Comes to Ghana

The Vice-Chancellor Prof. D.D. Kuupole, faculty, staff, and students of the University of Cape Coast welcome Dr. David Dooley, President, University of Rhode Island (URI), USA, on his inaugural trip to Ghana April 13 -19.

President Dooley and colleagues are in Ghana for the first time to further strengthen URI's well-established ties with African universities — including the University of Cape Coast and Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology — and to visit URI's ongoing projects in Ghana. These include the USAID/Ghana Sustainable Fisheries Management Project (SFMP), the USAID/UCC Fisheries and Coastal Management Capacity Building Support Project and the USAID/West Africa Analytical Support Services and Evaluations for Sustainable Systems In Agriculture, Environment, and Trade (ASSESS).

Be a part of this exciting visit!

Come hear President Dooley's talk:

Internationalization and Globalization: Education, Research,
Diplomacy, and Intelligence

Friday 15 April, 2016, 3pm
Main Auditorium, University of Cape Coast
+233 (0) 204 822 680

He will address how the current and future global context for higher education presents both substantial challenges and new opportunities. Using the University of Rhode Island as an example, this presentation examines how universities, especially public institutions, can contribute to solving global challenges and building a more prosperous and peaceful world.
